Happy New Year for 2010!

As I look back on the events that have occurred since the release of my book on Oct 14, 2009, I am deeply humbled and grateful. To date, over $7,000 has been raised for worthy causes. As well, for December, 60 books were donated to The Mustard Seed's Santa Toy Shoppe, The Salvation Army's Toy Mountain, and The Magic of Christmas which totals an extra $1,500.00 worth of books given to children who were in need of a little magic this Christmas. Please review the FUNdraising section of the website to see all charities and organizations that have been supported. My faery friends and I are incredibly grateful for everyone's generosity. May 2010 be your best year yet!

If you know of any schools that may be interested in having a little faery magic come their way, please feel free to pass along my information. I thank each and every one of you for your interest and support in this FUNdraising journey. My target of $2.5 million for worthy causes by 2012 is an aggressive one, but I truly believe in the quote by Les Brown, "Shoot for the moon, even if you miss, you'll land among the stars". Here's to each and every one of you reaching your wildest dreams and goals.
